Why should I consider CLS in my legacy plan?

CLS is committed to serving Jesus Christ through the practice of law, the defense of religious freedom, and the provision of legal aid to the poor and needy.

By including CLS in your will, you help to provide the financial support essential to achieving our long-term goals and implementing larger scale programs than the demands of our yearly budget allows.

It helps ensure that the Word of God is—and forever will be—proclaimed by faithful Christian attorneys in the legal profession.

We ask that you consider joining with others who have decided to leave a legacy with CLS by including CLS in your legacy plan today.

How do I include CLS in my legacy plan?

Leaving a charitable bequest in your will or living trust is a very simple, but important, way to help CLS over the long term.

To make a charitable bequest, please review the following language with your attorney:

I give, devise, and bequeath to Christian Legal Society (insert amount, percentage, or remainder of estate) to be used for general purposes (or your designated purposes).

You may also:

- Name CLS as the beneficiary of your retirement account or insurance policy.
- Establish a charitable gift annuity, charitable remainder trust, or charitable lead trust.
- Consider giving to CLS with your Mandatory Minimum Distribution from your IRA or retirement account. Your IRA or retirement account can be directed to CLS and never be subject to taxation.

Remember, CLS' Endowment match is only available for a limited time. Contact us to see if you qualify for this legacy-maximizing opportunity today.

If you would like more information or to discuss any of these options, please visit us online at ChristianLegalSociety.org/Legacy or contact us at legacy@clsnet.org.
