Re: Time sensitive First Amendment matter

Dear President Ryan:

The Center for Law and Religious Freedom of the Christian Legal Society has worked to protect the rights of religious student groups on public university and high school campuses for over four decades. The Center has consistently advocated for free speech and religious freedom for students of all faiths. I write to make you aware of a serious problem that, if not rectified in the next two days, will result in great harm to numerous students' civil rights as well as potential individual legal liability for University officials.

Last fall we watched with growing concern as the University of Virginia Student Council exhibited disturbing disdain for religious and political groups' freedom of speech and religion, culminating in the Council's adoption of a resolution, on November 22, urging the rescission of the Virginia statute that protects the right of religious and political student organizations at public universities to select their leaders and members according to their religious and political beliefs.¹ But the proposition that religious and political groups should be led by persons who agree with their religious and political beliefs is both common sense and a quintessential human right.

On August 2, 2021, the Student Council mandated that student organizations submit a novel "Identity Inclusion Disclosure Form" as a condition for participation in the Fall Activities Fairs. These fairs are an important means by which student organizations make incoming students aware of their existence and activities. Especially after the last academic year during which students struggled to keep their organizations intact because they could not meet in person, this year's activities fairs are particularly critical to student organizations' efforts to rebuild. For that reason alone, the University has a strong interest in enabling as many student organizations as possible to participate in the activities fairs. But instead the Student Council has chosen to impose an arbitrary obstacle to student organizations' participation. As the Form expressly acknowledges, the Council has conditioned participation in the Fall Activities Fairs on submission of the Form because of its dissatisfaction that religious and political groups have equal access to University facilities and resources along with other student groups.

¹ The Center sent a letter to all Student Council members before the November 22 meeting, which is attached to this letter. Unfortunately, the Council members disregarded its call for respect for other students' freedoms of speech, thought, and belief.

Letter to President Ryan August 12, 2021 Page 2 of 4

The Council's Form asks whether an organization is a religious or political group and whether it restricts its membership, leadership, programs, or activities on the basis of 15 different categories. If so, the organization's president is to indicate which categories are the basis for its restrictions. The Form is confusing in its wording but expressly raises the possibility that should the student president submit the Form with what the Council deems to be an incorrect answer, the student may face a charge of violating the Honor Code. As anyone familiar with the University knows, the mere possibility of facing such a charge (which in many cases leads to the penalty of expulsion, and in every case is highly stressful for students subjected to the process) threatens and intimidates prudent students. And clearly the Council intends the Form to have that effect on students. Furthermore, the Form states that if the Council understands the answer to be "misrepresentation," the organization may have its recognition "suspend[ed]" or have "its access to resources provided by the Council" "restrict[ed]."

Because the University ultimately is responsible for unlawful actions taken by the Council, the Council's actions pose a threat not only to students but also to University officials. See Rosenberger v. Rector and Visitors of the University of Virginia, 515 U.S. 819 (1995). Specifically, in the last eight months, three federal court decisions have made clear that the Council's actions expose University officials to the loss of qualified immunity, if the University allows the Council to continue on its current course of targeting religious groups with threats of withholding benefits otherwise available to other student organizations. These federal courts have held that public university officials lose qualified immunity when they utilize university nondiscrimination policies to penalize religious student groups for requiring their leaders to agree with their religious beliefs.

In 2021, the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals twice has ruled that University of Iowa officials lost their qualified immunity when they violated the First Amendment by derecognizing two religious student groups because they had religious leadership requirements. InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA v. University of Iowa, --- F.4th ---, 2021WL 3008743 (8th Cir. 2021); Business Leaders in Christ v. University of Iowa, 991 F.3d 969 (8th Cir. 2021). Specifically, five University officials lost their qualified immunity: the University President, the Vice President for Student Life, the Associate Dean of Student Organizations, the Coordinator for Student Organization Development, and the Student Misconduct and Title IX Investigator. InterVarsity, 2021 WL 3008743. Likewise, a Michigan federal district court found that Wayne State University officials forfeited qualified immunity by threatening a religious student group with derecognition because of its religious leadership requirements. InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA v. Bd. of Governors of Wayne State Univ., --- F. Supp.3d ---, 2021 WL 1387787 (E.D. Mich. 2021).

For nearly two decades, the University of Iowa student government sporadically harassed the Christian Legal Society student chapter about its leadership requirements. Eventually, in 2017, the University derecognized a small religious group of graduate business students for declining to give a leadership position to a student who expressly rejected the Letter to President Ryan August 12, 2021 Page 3 of 4 group's religious beliefs regarding sexual conduct. Business Leaders in Christ, 991 F.3d at 974-977. During the ensuing litigation, University officials placed a hold on the status of over 30 religious student groups because of their leadership standards, including student groups from the Muslim, Jewish, Sikh, Latter-Day Saints, Evangelical, and Catholic traditions.²

Nor would religious groups be the only groups affected. The leadership and membership requirements of social fraternities and sororities violate nondiscrimination policies' prohibitions on sex or gender identity discrimination.³ The same is true for a cappella groups and club sports teams that restrict membership based on sex or gender identity. Student groups that form around racial, ethnic, or national origin similarly would violate university nondiscrimination policies. See InterVarsity v. University of Iowa, 2021 WL 3008743, *2, *5-6. No doubt these groups address an important need for their members, as do religious groups. But universities must apply their nondiscrimination policies evenhandedly to religious and nonreligious groups alike.

The Eighth Circuit found that First Amendment law was clearly established in favor of the religious groups' right to recognition and, therefore, University officials lost their qualified immunity, even though no Iowa statute or federal regulation at the time protected religious student groups' religious leadership standards.⁴ By contrast, Virginia law has protected religious student groups' leadership standards since 2016. Va. Code § 23.1-400.

In addition, two federal regulations make it a material condition of any grant that the University receives from the Department of Education, either directly or through the State or a subgrantee, that the University not deny a religious student organization "any right, benefit, or privilege that is otherwise afforded to other student organizations . . . because of the religious student organization's beliefs, practices, policies, speech, membership standards, or leadership standards." 34 C.F.R. § 75.500(d) & § 76.500(d).

Under clearly established law, University officials have the legal duty to intervene to prevent further bullying of religious student groups by the Student Council. Specifically, University officials should instruct the Council to drop its requirement that the Form be submitted by religious student organizations. And the University has the moral responsibility to require that the Council respect their fellow students' religious and political beliefs even when—no, especially when—the Council disagrees with those religious and political beliefs.

 $^{^2}$ In response to the trial court's request, University officials produced a document in which it identified (by highlighting in blue) the religious student groups whose recognition status was on hold. That document is attached to this letter.

³ Title IX exempts social fraternities and sororities solely from the nondiscrimination provision of Title IX. 20 U.S.C. 1680(a)(6)(A). Title IX does not exempt fraternities and sororities from state nondiscrimination laws or universities' nondiscrimination policies.

⁴ The Iowa Legislature adopted a law in 2019 protecting all student organizations' leadership requirements. I.C.A. § 261H.3(3).

Student Council representatives, like every government official, need to recall our Republic's timeless lesson: "If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein." West Virginia State Bd. of Educ. v. Barnette, 319 U.S. 624, 642 (1943).

Dear Members of the University of Virginia Student Council:

We have a great fondness and deep respect for the University of Virginia. This fondness and respect derive from two of this University's essential characteristics. First, the University was founded on a profound commitment to freedom of expression and conscience. Second, this commitment has nurtured a diverse religious community among the UVA student body for which UVA is rightly celebrated.

The University's commitment to diversity, including religious diversity, and the resulting vibrant communities that exist among its students attracts new students to UVA every year. Students with diverse religious beliefs come because they know UVA is a place where their right to hold their respective beliefs will be respected, even if those beliefs are in the minority and even unpopular. On far too many college campuses, religious students are silenced and suppressed. But UVA is known to be a place where all students, including students who embrace religious faith, are welcome to form groups that reflect their diverse beliefs without fear of having any orthodoxy imposed upon them by the University or by any official body exercising its authority.

Unfortunately, an item under consideration on the Council's agenda for its meeting this evening would seek to impose an orthodoxy not only on religious groups but on political groups as well. FR20-38 would silence the voices of religious and political student organizations because their political or religious viewpoints are minority viewpoints and unpopular with a majority of the Council. The ability of political and religious groups to define their own standards for their leaders is absolutely essential to their self-expression. Genuine diversity exists on a campus only if political and religious groups can choose their leaders without interference from government actors. Such attempts to censor unpopular political and religious viewpoints is unworthy of this University and this Council.

If history teaches any lesson, it is that the right to express unpopular political and religious viewpoints is not to be put to a majoritarian vote. In 1943, the United States was in an existential fight with fascism. Many public school officials deemed it essential that students demonstrate their loyalty to the United States by daily pledging allegiance to its flag. But students belonging to a minority faith, Jehovah's Witnesses, could not salute the flag without violating their religious beliefs. As punishment, West Virginia education officials expelled the students from the public schools and then fined and jailed their parents for their children's truancy.

But in one of its landmark decisions, the United States Supreme Court ruled that, even in wartime, students have a First Amendment right to follow their religious and political convictions and refuse to salute the flag. The Court warned in perhaps its most famous passage:

> [The] freedom to differ is not limited to things that do not matter much. That would be a mere shadow of freedom. The test of its substance is the right to differ as to things that touch the heart of the existing order.

If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein. If there are any circumstances which permit an exception, they do not now occur to us.

West Virginia Board of Education v. Barnette, 319 U.S. 624, 642 (1943).

The courts have continued to affirm these essential rights, specifically in the context that is the subject of FR 20-38. Just last year, in InterVarsity Christian Fellowship v. University of Iowa, a federal district court found that the University of Iowa violated the First Amendment by prohibiting an InterVarsity chapter from selecting its leaders according to its religious beliefs. 408 F. Supp. 3d 960 (S.D. Iowa 2019), on appeal, No. 19-3389 (8th Cir. 2019). See also InterVarsity Christian Fellowship/USA v. Bd. of Governors of Wayne State Univ., 413 F. Supp. 3d 687 (E.D. Mich. 2019) (rejecting university's motion to dismiss). And in Business Leaders in Christ v. University of Iowa, the court ruled that a public university could not discriminatorily punish a religious student group that declined to accept a leader who rejected the group's religious views on same-sex marriage. 360 F. Supp.3d 885 (S.D. Iowa 2019), on appeal, No. 19-1696 (8th Cir. 2019). In fact, the Constitutional violations in the InterVarsity Christian Fellowship v. University of Iowa case were so clear that the district court held school officials personally liable for their actions. 408 F. Supp. 3d at 978.

Of course, the prohibition on government imposing orthodoxy on political and religious organizations runs both ways. Just as government may not penalize a student group for one viewpoint on same-sex marriage, they may not penalize a different student group for the opposite view. Gay & Lesbian Students Ass'n v. Gohn, 850 F.2d 361, 365-66 (8th Cir. 1988) (finding that student government's denial of equal treatment to an LGBT student group violated the First Amendment). "Tolerance is," as federal courts have explained, "a two-way street." Ward v. Polite, 667 F.3d 727, 735 (6th Cir. 2012). "Otherwise, the rule mandates orthodoxy, not anti-discrimination." Id. (Our organization was instrumental in the passage of the federal Equal Access Act of 1984, 20 U.S.C. §§ 4071-4074, which protects the right of both religious and LGBT student groups to meet in public secondary schools. We practice the tolerance that we preach.)

These constitutional protections are particularly applicable "in the community of American universities," where the First Amendment rejects "any strait jacket" that "'cast[s] a pall of orthodoxy' over the free exchange of ideas." Dube v. State University of New York, 900 F.2d 587, 597-98 (2d Cir. 1990) (quoting Sweezy v. New Hampshire, 354 U.S. 237, 250 (1957), and Keyishian v. Bd. of Regents, 385 U.S. 589, 603 (1967), and finding that university officials could be personally liable for damages for censoring free speech).

When we look back to West Virginia in 1943, we shake our heads that any education officials thought it right to compel students to mouth words that violated their political and religious convictions. But history teaches that government officials repeatedly have chosen to impose their particular orthodoxy at great cost to individual human freedom.

That same deeply misguided desire to coerce uniformity of opinion animates FR20-38. For that reason, the resolution should be rejected.

Thank you for considering our comments.

Yours truly,

Kim Colby Director, Center for Law and Religious Freedom Christian Legal Society 8001 Braddock Road Suite 302 Springfield, Virginia 22151 (703) 894-1087/kcolby@clsnet.org
