

Owners' Statement of Faith

The owners of Morefield Speicher Bachman, LC are followers of the Christian faith. Christianity requires that its followers strive to live their lives in a manner consistent with the precepts and doctrines of their faith.

In light of the owners' faith, Morefield Speicher Bachman, LC MSB exists to serve our clients, team, and community with excellence, so that they can see and experience God's grace, love, and justice. The owners desire to bring glory to God through the practice of law, in service to God first and then in service to employees and their families, to clients, and to the community, within the bounds and rules of professional conduct.

To this end, the owners of Morefield Speicher Bachman, LC seek always to fulfill Jesus' command to love God and then love others by striving to treat everyone with respect, and by serving others with excellence and integrity, in order to bear witness to the owners' faith in Christ and also to Christ's Lordship over the owners' lives.

Morefield Speicher Bachman, LC is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
